WILSON REPLIES TO NOTE FROM PREMIERS

TEXT OF MISSIVE IS KEPT SECRET; MAY BE RELEASED IF ALLIES WILLING

Understood That Latest Document is Couched in Firm Language.

SECRET DIPLOMACY DISPLEASES PRESS

Strong Protests Made by British Publishers, Who Point Out Evils.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The President this afternoon completed his reply to the note from the allied premiers. The reply was sent to the state department this afternoon for transmission to the allied governments. The President's position, it is learned, remains unchanged and his note is couched in firm language. With regard to making public the documents in the Adriatic controversy, the president is said to favor such action, but the procedure in this event would be to cable the allies first for their permission, which has been done. It may be several days before the notes are made public.

REPLY IS DICTATED

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—President Wilson will today send his reply to the communication of the allied premiers to his protest against the Adriatic settlement. It was announced at the white house today.

The president has read the communication of the allied premiers and is now in his study dictating his answer.
The white house stated that reports that there had been a disagreement between former Secretary Lansing and Mr. Wilson on the Adriatic protest were unfounded. Reports of the president's intention to withdraw the peace treaty from the senate, as published in the Matin at Paris, were said to be substantially correct.

PROTEST MADE AGAINST SECRET DIPLOMACY

(International News Service.)
LONDON, Feb. 19.—Protest against the secret diplomacy which has marked the exchange of views between President Wilson and the allies over the Adriatic settlement has been made to the cabinet by British publishers, it was learned today.

It is declared that the secrecy with which allied negotiations have been conducted since the council of premiers began sitting in this city last week has jeopardized Anglo-American relations.

The sensation which has followed revelations of President Wilson's postscript on his Adriatic note, has resulted in a widespread demand in the press for "frankness and open dealings for the sake of world unity."

and Offensive Program.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Talk of a general railroad strike after the roads are returned to their owners on March 1 grew stronger today following the announcement that the railroad unions in the American Federation of labor and the big brotherhoods

one big union, bound by a written agreement "to act concurrently on a general offensive and defensive pro-

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—A temporary injunction restraining the United States shipping board from selling former German vessels was granted W. R. Hearst today in the supreme court of the district of Columbia.

timated that the cost of duplication of

Harris Says Atroci- ties Should Stop

BIRMINGHAM, Feb. 18. (Special)
—The report of the murder of over 2,000 Armenians by the Turks last week, report of which was sent this country by the United States press and other agencies, aroused the hearty indignation of Dr. Seale Harris, state chairman of the Near East Relief for Alabama. This organization is devoting its entire time and effort to alleviating the suffering of the victims of the Turk, during and since the war, in Asia Minor, including Syria, Armenia and other parts of the Near East.

"It is almost inconceivable," said Dr. Harris today, "that such things should be possible today. The Turk is today apparently on his knees to the allied and associated powers, but behind their backs he continues his age-old practice of butchering men, women and children who differ from him in faith or whose growing power would eventually threaten his political future in the Near East. The Young Turk party is using every means at its command to spread their propaganda, both among their own people and among the people of allied countries. Any one at all familiar with conditions as they actually exist in the Near East today will agree with me that the Turkish government, and especially the so-called "Young Turk" party, is absolutely not to be trusted."
"The promise of a Turk or of the government of the Turk is no promise at all. For hundreds of years they have been making promises—only to break them at the very first opportunity. These more recent atrocities, including the murder of two young Americans who were trying to carry food and supplies to these starving peoples, should arouse such a sentiment in America as would absolutely preclude the Turk from ever again becoming an international power. It is to be hoped that the Peace Conference or the League of Nations, will deal with the Turk as he richly deserves to be dealt with, and make him forever impotent to carry on such persecutions and massacres as he has done in the past."

One of the defendants gave as his defense that he was "bookkeeper" at a negro cafe. His excuse failed to prevent a fine.

MASS MEETING AT HARTSELLE URGES LOCATION HIGHWAY TO MARSHALL LINE

Route Through Priceville and Somerville is Sought by Morgan Citizens.

COMMITTEES NAMED TO WORK FOR THE PLAN

State and County Commissions
Will be Urged to Designate
That Route.

HARTSELLE, Ala., Feb. 19 (Special).—A mass meeting of the Morgan county citizens was held in Hartselle yesterday afternoon at 1 p. m. for the purpose of urging the location of the federal and state road, from Decatur to Guntersville.

The following named men were delegates from their respective beats: Somerville: T. W. Ward, Dr. T. B.
Brindley and E. A. Harris.
Ryans X Roads: W. T. Crawford,
Dewitt Crawford.

Eva: Wiley Stewart, W. T. Frost,
W. F. Ford, D. M. Chaffin, J. L. Wallace, W. T. Moses and A. O. Millwood.
Lawrence Cove: J. M. Childs and
C. A. Oden.

Apple Grove: J. W. Smith, J. N.
Jackson, M. W. Ratliff, E. W. Wilber,
J. W. Enterkin and Louis Prince.
Florette: J. W. Lynn, J. M. Palmer.
Priceville: W. B. Robinson, Judson Hutson, T. E. Waddell and J. L.
Bentley.

Falkville: C. T. Harvey.
Lacon: J. B. Patterson.
Hartselle: W. E. Lynn, J. F. Stewart, P. W. Williams and R. A. Burleson.

On motion it was unanimously voted to urge the commissioners court, the state highway commission and all citizens of Morgan county to use their best efforts to have the Decatur and Guntersville road run from Decatur via Priceville, Somerville, Florette, and thence to county line of Marshall, by the most practicable route from Florette in the judgment of the State and federal surveyors.

The following committee were appointed to confer with the citizens of Woodland Mills, Valhermosa, Lacy's
and Wolf's to obtain their co-operation in this movement: R. A. Burleson; W. B. Robinson; W. T. Crawford; E. W. Wilber and E. A. Harris.

In addition to the above named delegates there were a large number of influential citizens of Morgan present, and it can be truthfully said that there was never a more harmonious meeting held in this county.

It was pointed out at this meeting that the location, as agreed upon, would be of greater service to the citizens of Morgan than any other road in the county.

Dr. Cook Here in Interest of Howard

IRWIN ENDORSES ALABAMA STREET FOR BRIDGE SITE

Alabama street, as a site for the highway bridge across the Tennessee river here, was given hearty endorsement today by S. W. Irwin, profient Decatur realty dealer.

"While Alabama street is a little out-of-the-way for both Albany and Decatur, still it seems to be the only common meeting ground for both cities and I endorse the site there," he said. "The government engineers have declared they will not allow a bridge within one half mile of the present railroad bridge, so that much territory can be considered as eliminated.
I am glad to see the cities getting together on the Alabama street site, for we need the bridge, we want it and we may never have another opportunity like the present one to get it."

"It means too much for us to let any minor details interfere without development plans. Lets have the bridge!"

Lowden situation makes it necessary

IS COALITION COMING TO THE UNITED STATES?

Several years ago America began taking a great deal of interest in the affairs of Europe and ever since the word "coalition" and the phrases "coalition cabinet" and "coalition government" have been trickling through the cables to newspaper and magazine readers on this side of the pond. As a rule, however, Mr. American Citizen has not been vividly impressed with "coalition" or anything it stands for. Uncle Sam has, in turn, had as the pet of his household the Democratic donkey and the G. O. R. elephant for so many years, election of a man of one of the two big parties to the White House has come to be a matter of course.

Coalition in the presidential race now getting under way is mentioned seriously for the first time in more than two decades. Herbert Hoover seems to be in the center of the coalition limelight at present, and will continue to occupy that position until he makes known his allegiance to one of the old line parties. Hoover would be a potential candidate for the presidency in either of the parties but declining to align himself with either of them, he has marshaled sufficient force behind him to cause the New York World, independent newspaper, normally Democratic and formerly very much Wilsonian, to declare it favors Hoover on either ticket.

The suggestion of the World is carried further in the Saturday Evening Post, which expresses the hope editorially this week, that both of the old line parties will endorse the same man for President, a non-partisan business man who will form a coalition government from the best men in both parties. A few paragraphs before, the Post had endorsed Hoover, the inference being that Hoover would be very acceptable to the Philadelphia magazine.

The Democratic and Republican parties have withstood many attacks before, but with Labor organizing for a political fight, the non-partisan American Legion determined to make its voice heard, a coalition-reform party in control in several states of the Middle West, the national convention of the Old Guard of both parties will do well to exercise more than ordinary care in their selection of a standard-bearer this year. Coalition is taking on a new significance to Americans.

BEWARE OF THE VICIOUS CIRCLES OF WAR

While the senate leaders waste their time in mere talk, the shark teeth of another great war are being sown on the shores of the Adriatic sea. It may not take as long this time for the vicious circle to come round to us as it did when the whole world was thrown into battle array in 1914. Small boys now playing on the streets may be stowed away in great ships and sent to European battle fields in thirty years, because the world-wide dream of fairness contained in the Wilsonian 14 points has been discarded and discredited in the settlement of the Jugo-Slav controversy strictly in favor of the kingdom of Italy.

This, of course, in the event that the protest of President Wilson to the premiers of Europe is ignored, as doubtless will be the case. Why should the responsible leaders of Europe pay heed to a man who has been ignored by his own senate and forced to a bed of sickness by the damnable stubbornness of a few partisan leaders? While yesterday, Woodrow Wilson's word stood against the world, today he is regarded only as the sick man of the United States of America. Briefly stated, the Adriatic question has come to its present status because of a strong league of nations, which was possible if this nation had ratified the Versailles treaty, the powers of England and France have had to seek again the old balance of power system. And the balance was best for them, they felt, to favor Italy rather than the new nation of Jugo-Slavia in the settlement of the Adriatic question. The principle of self protection has asserted itself, instead of the principle of co-operation as embodied in the 14 points and League of Nations ideas, and why? Simply because more than for any other reason, the Senate of the United States, "that most august body in the world" has played cheap politics; and worse, betrayed the confidence and trust of the great peace-loving people of all nations. The leading European nations had lost their best hope of preventing another war when the League failed in America. Their decision to make Italy solid for the old entente was forced upon them. The senate leaders will not be held guiltless should the dragon seed sown along the Adriatic spring into another year. Wilson, who was proudly hailed as the first of all the world princes of peace, has been deliberately slapped in the face by the republican leaders of the Senate.

There is a jackal crowd who will howl with delight at the fall of Wilson, but unless he rises, and here is hoping that he does, there is destined to fall down around his prostrate form the grandest dream of peace and justice that ever came to mortal man, since absolute peace was proclaimed to be the normal state of mankind by the angel choirs so many centuries ago.

FATHER AND SON WEEK

February 16-22 has been designated by the Surgeon General as "Father and Son Week." The purpose of this is to intensify the work of the Keeping Fit Campaign among teen age boys.

Comparison of health records of boys and young men in those states where sex hygiene is taught, and where it is not taught to boys, shows a decided advantage for the former. With these facts as a basis, the Surgeon General directed an intensive campaign of education among boys during this winter and spring.

Father and Son Week is one phase of the program. It is believed that the most helpful step in the boys' development is a closer, more confidential relationship between father and son. It is a fact that this relationship does not always even approximate the ideal.

Some U. S. district attorney has discovered that profiteering is the sixth of causes for the high cost of living. It's a safe bet that the profiteers pocket more than that percentage of the spoils.

The Experience of Others Should Be Your Guide

Come in or telephone us and we will be glad to give you the names of some Miller users in this city. Let them tell you of their experience with these uniform mileage Geared-to-the-Road Tires.

Then remember the success these users are having with Miller Tires is merely representative of the performance of Millers everywhere.

Over boulevards and country roads, on heavy overloaded trucks, and high powered motor cars, Millers are setting higher mileage standards. Under like conditions, tire after tire, wears the same. All give over-mileage.

Convince yourself. Get the facts from us. Drive up, or call us to-day.

A PROCLAMATION
Because God, in the victory for righteousness, and for the peace He has given us, has given us occasion for great joy, and because joy is an emotion that can be best expressed in song, and because singing is one of the greatest unifying and nationalizing influences, and because the week of Washington's Birthday has been designated as The National Week of Song, a week when the whole nation will unite as a mighty chorus to sing the songs we love, it is deemed especially appropriate at this time to suggest that the week of February 22nd to 28th, inclusive, be set aside for the singing of such songs as will express our joy, awaken a love for God and country, stimulate a true spirit of devotion and loyalty, unite us in our civic interests and develop that spirit of brotherhood which will make us a better people and a greater nation.

Because of the far-reaching influence for good and the great joy to be derived from the observance of The National Week of Song, also because great praise, such as can best be given in song, is due Him from whom all blessings flow, this proclamation calls upon all who believe in America and American ideals to join earnestly in the observance of this significant event. That this is done in schools and churches, by choral societies, welfare clubs, woman's clubs, men's clubs, and all kindred organizations.

FOOLING WITH HEALTH SERIOUS

I have frequently asked druggists "What do you push in a blood medicine?" The answer usually came, "The kind I can make the most money on." My answer has always been "Not me." I have succeeded pretty well and I have always recommended the one that I had found by experience to be the best and the one I would be willing to take myself or give to members of my own family. I have never offered the public a medicine that we do not use at home. This is why I can offer "Number 40 For The Blood," with a clear conscience; we have not only tried it on thousands of others, but on ourselves. We take it in all cases where a blood medicine is needed, no matter in what form it shows itself and we get splendid results in constipation, kidney, stomach and liver troubles. I firmly believe if everyone would begin in the spring and take "Number 40" they would escape malaria and fevers in all forms. J. C. Mendenhall, 40 years a druggist, Evansville, Ind. Preuit-Dillehay Drug Co., Advertisement.

WOODWARD-DOWDY

The beautiful ceremony, in its quiet and solemnity, not marred by confusion, so often observable at weddings, was that performed at 12:30 o'clock by Rev. W. N. Sholl, when he united in marriage Miss Christine Woodward and Mr. Q. B. Dowdy of Florence. The wedding took place at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Woodward on Church street, members of the families of the contracting parties and a few friends being present. For the occasion the home was darkened, lighted by the soft glow of candle light combining to make a beautiful and impressive scene. The bride was becomingly attired in an imported brown tailored suit, with matching accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Dowdy left on the afternoon train for Birmingham. The bride is one of our most talented young women, admired by a large circle of friends.

FRANCES WILLARD MEMORIAL

The annual Frances Willard Memorial service held by the W. C. T. U. Tuesday evening was the twenty-second consecutive service held by the Albany-Decatur Union. Each year the meeting takes on a characteristic all its own. This was no exception. From Rev. Morris' devotional address to the close, there was a peculiar charm. Woman's suffrage was a strong note—distinctly sounded for the first time in these services—though Frances Willard was among the first to advocate it. The large chorus choir rendered "Sound the Jubilee" with a tilt that was captivating. A unique situation occurred in one of Miss Marjorie Raney's readings. By request she was to give Mrs. Catherine Lent Stephenson's famous poem to Miss Willard's statue in the Hall of Fame. Search through the Twin Cities, Birmingham and Nashville failed to locate a copy of the poem. As Miss Raney was about to start to the meeting she remembered a book presented in her childhood by the famous Mrs. L. M. N. Stephens who had announced that in her address to be given in the Central Baptist church she would ask a question and any one answering it correctly would be presented with a book. Marjorie captured the book and when she looked into it Tuesday evening, behold, on the last page the much sought poem which she read. There were those present who remembered the Stephens incident. The offering for the Frances Willard Memorial Fund was most gratifying and a fine addition was made to the membership of the Union.

Tree Trunks Made Cisterns.

The Eucalyptus tree of central Africa, the trunk of which sometimes attains a diameter of forty feet, often serves as a natural cistern, retaining rain-water in large quantities in a cavity formed at the top of the broad trunk. Taking the hint thus afforded by nature, the Arabs artificially hollow out the huge baobabs and fill them with water during the prevalence of rains, as a provision against the dry season. These cisterns are in many cases twenty feet in height and eight or ten feet in diameter.

Beauty.

Animals living in nature are ever where beautiful; but it is only among men that ugliness flourishes. Savage nearly everywhere are gracious and harmonious; it is only among the civilized that harshness and discord are permitted to prevail. If the eugenic ideals that are now floating before men's eyes never lead us to any heaven at all, but merely discourage among us the generation of human creatures below the level of decent savagery, they will serve their turn.—Havelock Ellis.

Miss Essie Smith has been quite ill with "flu", but is better and we hope will soon be well.

Mr. and Mrs. Kushaw are stopping in Athens for a few days. They both have a large circle of friends here who are giving them a glad welcome. Mrs. Kushaw will be remembered as Miss Edith Alexander, a former music teacher of the college and a daughter of Dr. Alexander, quite a noted minister of the M. E. church. They now reside in Louisville. Mr. Kushaw has been a traveling man. We are glad to have them with us again.

The John Wade Keyes chapter D. A. R. held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday and elected delegates for Washington in April. Mrs. Harry Walker was selected as delegate and Mrs. Thos. Frost as alternate. Mrs. McClallen, our regent, hopes to go too. Mrs. Dr. Hagan was elected delegate at large.

Mrs. B. M. Rawls is quite sick with "flu". She recently returned from a visit to her sister in Memphis.

Miss Shela Sawyers is spending a few days in Athens.

Mr. Blount's remains were brought to Athens Monday for interment. His wife, formerly Miss Irene Russell, was not able to come. She has the sympathy of a large circle of friends here in her old home.

R. B. Stonestreet is spending two weeks with his brother in Florida.

Mr. Kindall leave for a business trip through Alabama and Mississippi this week.

Turkish Theatrical Propoganda is to Spread Hatred

Theatrical performances are being used by the Turkish Nationalist government to spread hatred and incite massacres of non-moslem residents of Asia Minor, according to reports received today by E. C. Payne, county chairman of the Near East Relief, the organization which has for its motive the saving of the lives of more than a million starving people in Turkey and neighboring countries. As fast as the British withdraw their troops, the Mohammedan population is aroused against the Christian residents with massacres and destruction of property as a result.

Throughout the interior of Asia Minor, says Major Davis G. Arnold, Director of Near East Relief at Constantinople, government controlled theatres are presenting the Tragedy of Smyrna, the Tragedy of Aidin and similar semi-religious productions calculated to spread the hatred of the Mohammedans against persons of other religions. A report from Angora says thousands of Armenians who flocked there from interior villages and smaller towns after the Armenians of the city itself had been deported and massacred in 1915, are following the British troops out of that region, traveling in caravans because the troops took all of the available equipment and locomotives with them when they withdrew.

Angora is one of the terminals of a branch of the Berlin-Bagdad railroad. At present it is little better than a complete ruin as a fire said to have been started by orders of Turkish officials, destroyed the Armenian and Jewish quarters in 1915.

"LISTEN LESTER" AT THE MASONIC THEATRE TODAY

The music of "Listen Lester," which appears at the Masonic theatre tonight has become nationally known; its melodies are as familiar to the average small boy as the features of the triumphant Jack Dempsey. Its songs have been published and played in hotels and restaurants from Coast to Coast; one phonograph company has exclusive rights to many of its melodies, but the small boy whose verdict abetted by his whistle forecasts the success of the songs of a musical comedy, long ago proclaimed a victory for the songs of "Listen Lester."

"Two is Company" is a captivating song sung by Mary Dodge and Jack Griffin, her sweetheart, and into which William Penn Jr., the hotel clerk intrudes, much to the displeasure of the others. "A Very Good Baby in the Daytime, but a Bad, Bad Baby at Night" is a childlike confession from one Arbutus Quilty, the pretty villainess who comes to Florida to track her former suitor. "I'd Love To" is another song sung by Arbutus Quilty, who is accompanied by the hotel clerk who agrees with her without reserve. "See Her First" is a bit of sage advice given by said clerk who in the years spent at a bathing beach has become "wise" to the illusions cast by layers of garments. He would pass a law advocating bathing suits for women as a national uniform.

Altogether "Listen Lester," which is under the management of John Cort and the work of Harry L. Cort, George E. Stoddard and Harold Orlob, is a vibrant collection of dance, women, and song which will live long and be cherished in the memory.

MAE MURRAY IN "THE TWIN PAWNS"—MASONIC THEATRE ON FRIDAY

One man's craving for wealth and power—one man's lust for greed that hesitated at nothing to accomplish his evil desires—is responsible for the plot of "The Twin Pawns."

Daisy and Violet White are twin sisters. Mae Murray, captivating and bewitching, plays both roles. In their childhood their parents separated. Daisy was raised by her mother in the slums of New York, while Violet enjoyed all the luxuries bestowed upon her by an indulgent father, owner of a large steel plant in Uniontown, Pa.

Daisy's mother died, and papers indicating Daisy's relationship to the steel magnate fell into the hands of John Fern, an unscrupulous man as ever existed inside or outside a book. By hiding from Daisy's father the truth of her existence, he is able to shift the twins to his own best advantage.

To give the plot in detail would be to remove much of the pleasure in seeing "The Twin Pawns" on the screen, for the story unfolds with the breathless excitement that characterizes all good melodramas.

"The Twin Pawns" was adapted by Leonora Perret from "The Woman in White," a popular novel by Wilkie Collins, a famous English novelist.

Screen lovers will recall the pair in "Love Insurance." Mr. Washburn's previous starring vehicle, where they become acquainted under bizarre circumstances and fall in love. Though "Why Smith Left Home" is in no sense a sequel to the other film, it carries the lovers through a rapid-fire elopement and a tumultuous and extremely amusing honeymoon. Fire, wrecks, designing serving maids, and an earthquake combine to foil Smith in his efforts to win his first nuptial kiss, and only when he turns cave-man does he succeed.

The picture is a screen version of George Broadhurst's well known farce of the same name. Maym Kelso, Walter Hiers, Winter Hall, Margaret Loomis, and Carrie Clark Ward are included in the cast. It was directed by Donald Crisp.

President Wilson Said:

"Is There No Pity?"

"There is one pitiful example which is in the hearts of all of us. I mean the example of Armenia. They are a Christian people, helpless, at the mercy of the Turkish government, which thought it the service of God to destroy them.

"But at this moment, my fellow citizens, it is an open question whether the Armenian people will not, while we sit here and debate, be absolutely destroyed. When I think of words piled on words, of debate following debate, when these unspeakable things that cannot be handled until the debate is over, are happening in these pitiful parts of the world, I wonder that men do not wake up to the moral responsibility of what they are doing.

"Great populations are driven out upon a desert where there is no food—and can be none, and they are compelled to die. Then men, women and children are thrown into a common grave, so imperfectly covered up that here and there is a pitiful arm stretched out to heaven; but is there no pity in the world? When shall we awake to the moral responsibilities of this great occasion?"

—From an address at Kansas City, Sept. 6, 1919.
